Wordsworth and Burns.

A friend writes us from England. We visited the simple tomb of William Wordsworth in Grasmere churchyard The old church stood near it, among the ancient trees The rapid Rotha passed the graves and the grand hills lifted their green domes in the cloudless sky

We had ridden past the poet tuned lakes of Windermere and Grasmere, with memories of Coleridge, De Quincey, Christopher North, Mrs Hemans and Harriet Martineau, and had rested by Rydal Water in the shadows of Rydal Mount

"Wordsworth," said one of our party, calling to mind the author of the "Excursion" "seems to be the soul of all these scenes He made himself the ever prevailing spirit of the English lakes "

"Burns was his teacher," said another

"How was that?" we asked

There, under the grand trees lifting their solemn tops to the sun, our friend repeated a single verse from Wordsworth's poem on the death of Burns

I mourned with thousands but as one
More deeply grieved, for he was gone
Whose light I hailed when first it shone
And showed my youth
How verse may build a princely throne
On humble truth

Papaw Vines For Luck

The Rev T D Witherspoon in a sermon at Paducah related an amusing story of his experience while evangelizing in the mountains One day while passing a cornfield in Leslie county he was surprised to see long strings of papaw bark knotted together and tied to stumps He asked his guide what it meant and was informed that it was 'to bring luck '

' And does such a foolish superstition exist all over this community?" asked the minister

"Oh, no," said the mountaineer, "the old preacher over in the settlement yonder says papaw vines don't do no good "

"An intelligent man," interrupted Mr Witherspoon ' I'm glad to find one man who isn't lost in ignorance "

"Yessir," the native continued, "he 'lows that yarn strings beats papaw strings all hollow when it comes to bringin luck Fact is, he don't use nothin but yarn strings "—Louisville Courier Journal

A Polite Child.

Professor Sully, in an article in The Popular Science Monthly, commenting on the jealous regard for ceremony and the proprieties of behavior as seen in the enforcement of rules of politeness by children, cites a delightful instance that fell under his own observation as he was walking on Hampstead heath "It was a spring day, and the fat buds of the chestnut were bursting into magnificent green plumes Two well dressed misses aged, I should say, about 9 and 11 [illegible] then correct morning [illegible] The elder called the attention of the younger to [illegible] the trees, pointing to it The younger exclaimed in a highly [illegible] 'Oh, Maud, you know you shouldn't point!' Capital Punishment In Calabar.

The famous Calabar bean is said to be worse than strychnine The natives use it for an ordeal If a person is accused of a crime, he is made to eat one, being adjudged to be guilty in case of death, which is almost inevitable Another [illegible] for a like purpose is that [illegible] tree of Madagascar, said to be the most deadly of vegetable products One of these seeds about the size [illegible] will kill 20 men

When a man owns a blooded horse he is always careful of its health He looks after its diet and is particular that the feeding shall be regular and right While he is doing this it is likely as not that he is himself suffering from some disease or disorder that if left to itself will go on and on till it develops seriously

When the trouble gets so bad that he cannot work, he will begin to give himself the care he gave the horse at the start The time to cure a disease is at the beginning and better than all is to so watch your health that disease will never come Good, pure, rich, red blood is the best insurance against disease of any kind Almost all diseases come from impure or impoverished blood Keep the blood pure and strong and disease can find no foothold

That is the principle on which Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery works It cleanses purifies and enriches the blood, it puts and keeps the whole body in perfect order Makes appetite good, digestion strong assimilation perfect It brings rud dy, virile health

I got a cancer on my tongue and had it cut out I consulted fifteen different physicians without deriving any benefit At last I turned to Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I persisted in its use and my health is better than ever before Formerly every accidental wound I received began to fester would not heal, now, such lacerations heal themselves '

AFRAID OF THE ISSUE.

The financial question has forced itself to the front in spite of the efforts of the politicians to relegate it to the rear. It is very annoying to the gentlemen who aspire to the Presidency, and by no means pleasing to many whose present ambition is to get Congressional honors or Federal positions. During the contest in Ohio in 1891 Major McKinley, who was then a candidate for Governor, emphasized the fact in his campaign speeches that Campbell, his opponent, was a free coinage man, and that he (McKinley) was a gold standard man. When confronted with a speech which he delivered in Congress in favor of silver his apology was that he was wrong then and right now.

Speaker Reed, in a magazine article a year ago, expressed himself as being in favor of silver, but now he is a confirmed goldbug. Secretary Carlisle at one time denounced the demonetization of silver as the most gigantic crime of this or any other age. Allison has been by turns a silver man and a gold man, and now it is said he stands on a gold leg in the East and on a silver one in the West. Senator Lodge of Massachusetts was disposed to favor silver until he undertook to champion the cause of Reed for President. Since then he drafted the Massachusetts Republican platform, which declares opposition to the free coinage of silver.

Not one of the Presidential candidates, except it be Cleveland, has the courage to declare his present position on the financial question. McKinley said a year ago that he would not accept a nomination on a free coinage platform. Now the most insistent interviewer cannot get an expression from him on that question. Reed is just as reticent, and even Governor Morton, who hopes with the aid of a barrel to get votes in the national convention, is non-committal. They are all afraid of the issue, and those who have records on both sides of the question present the golden side to the people east of the Alleghanies, and turn the silver side to those west of the Ohio. They hope to secure votes by deceiving the people of one section or the other, and will probably offer a high premium to the genius who can devise a platform that will meet the exigencies of the case A fortune is within reach of the platform maker who can juggle with words so that in the East they will mean gold and in the West silver.

GOVERNOR SADLER

The Constitution of Nevada, Article V, section 18, provides that in the event of the removal of the Governor from office by death, resignation, inability to discharge the duties of the office, the powers and duties of the office shall devolve upon the Lieutenant Governor for the residue of the term. The Constitution also provides that the President pro tem of the Senate shall perform the duties of Lieutenant Governor, if there should be a vacancy from any cause.

Under these provisions Reinhold Sadler, who was elected Lieutenant Governor in November, 1894, becomes Governor of the State, in consequence of the death of Governor Jones, for the residue of the term—that is, until January, 1899—and Senator Gignoux of Lyon county becomes Acting Lieutenant Governor, so long as he is President pro tem of the Senate. As his term will expire next January he will be Lieutenant Governor until that, and, if re-elected, will hold the position for two years longer. The Constitution does not provide for the election of a Lieutenant Governor at the next election.

Governor Sadler is an old resident of the State, and has been in active business in Eastern Nevada for many years. He fully understands the condition of the State, and as Chief Executive will pursue a policy that will receive the approval of the people. He fully realizes the fact that owing to the depressed condition of our principal industry, the most rigid economy, consistent with good government and the execution of the laws, is essential to the maintenance of a State Government. The people will expect him to apply the pruning hook and lop off all unnecessary expenses that it is possible for him to reach, and to call the attention of the Legislature to those that it is not in his power to remove. He has been actively engaged in mining, agricultural and mercantile pursuits, having given his personal attention to each, and experience has taught him that in these times of general depression an economical administration of the affairs of State will be highly appreciated by the people.

Governor Sadler has been at the helm of the Ship of State for nearly six months. He has steered clear of the breakers, and on several occasions given evidence of much executive ability, and the JOURNAL hopes and predicts that his administration will be creditable to himself and satisfactory to the people of Nevada.

THE BICYCLE IN POLITICS.

The bicycle is a factor in politics in some of the Eastern cities, and politicians are laying wires to secure the "bicycle vote." In Milwaukee the wheel was an issue, and the wheelmen claim a majority of the Council. At present there is no bicycle ordinance, but it was admitted that one would be passed before the riding season opens. The wheelmen resolved to secure the election of Aldermen who would not impose a hardship upon them, and they took an active part in defeating candidates who had shown a disposition to be unfair to the men who ride on wheels. They claim to have succeeded, and that no ordinances will be enacted this year that will be unfair to bicycle riders.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

The Maybrick Resolutions—Senators and Representatives' Clerks.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—HOAR, from the Committee on Judiciary, reported back Call's resolution proposing intervention in the case of Mrs. Maybrick.

"I ask indefinite postponement of the resolution," said Hoar.

The report was read. It recited briefly that the proposed intervention was not a subject within the jurisdiction of the Senate. A vote was about to be taken on indefinitely postponing the Call resolution, when Allen suggested that it would be well to wait until the author of the resolution was present. Thereupon the resolution went to the calendar.

The House conferees took a stand against what they term the extravagance of the Senate in providing for itself. The Representatives are allowed clerks whose salaries are $100 a month during the session of Congress, and some do not avail themselves of this allowance, while each Senator has a clerk at an annual salary of $1,200.

Killed by a Windmill.

MILTON, Wis., April 15.—F. G. Dillman of Madison was instantly killed yesterday in an unusual manner. He was a machinist for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, and came here to repair the company's windmill. Mounting to the platform, he put his head through the manhole One of the large steel fans blown by the wind, came in contact with his head, cutting through his skull like a knife. In an instant he was hurled to the ground, a distance of sixty feet.

Both Feet Crushed

ROCHESTER, Pa., April 13.—While attempting to board the Fort Wayne local westbound freight this morning Henry Jewell, aged 39 years, fell under the wheels, and had both legs crushed at the ankle. He was taken to the hospital, where both feet were amputated.

AUSTRALIAN SALT BUSH.

What it is and Methods of Growing it.

In view of the great interest now being taken in Australian salt bush (atriplex semibaccatum), the new forage plant for alkali soils, Director Devol of the Experiment Station at Tuscon, Arizona, sends the following brief method of growing it:

The seeds are flat, somewhat heart-shaped, about one-tenth of an inch long and of a brownish or redish green color. If covered in wet soil when fresh they are apt to rot, but sown before a rain and lightly covered with soil, or preferably covered with grass or weeds and kept moderately moist they will germinate readily. They may be started in boxes or hot-beds and transplanted to the field; but plants grown in this way do not resist drouth so well as those planted where they are to remain. While young the plants require watering two or three times, but when well established they will resist quite severe droughts. Although a perennial plant it grows so rapidly that one cutting may be obtained the first season and two the following season. It will grow in soil having more alkali than any other plant valuable for forage, and unlike most plants growing upon such soil it has a prostrate habit, growing to a height of but 8 to 12 inches and spreading over several square feet of ground. Single plants have been known to reach a spread of 16 feet, this, too, upon very alkaline soil. It is estimated that from three to six tons per acre of dried hay may be produced. Sheep and hogs relish it green, and when mixed with about one-third its weight of other hay, horses and cattle eat it dried.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

FINAL RESOLUTIONS.

Read and Adopted at the State Teachers' Institute.

During the business session of the State Teachers' Institute of Friday afternoon, April 10, 1896, the following resolutions were submitted by the respective committees.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Your Committee on Resolutions beg leave to report the following:

WHEREAS, The members of this Institute have been most cordially entertained by the people of Reno, we deem necessary some fitting expression of our appreciation of the same; therefore be it

Resolved, That the sincere thanks of the members of this Institute are heartily tendered the citizens of Reno, and especially the school officers, teachers and pupils of the Reno public schools, the University authorities, the Principal and young ladies of the Normal School, the railroad officials and the press of the city of Reno, for the many courtesies shown us during our visit; be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this session of the Nevada State Teachers' Institute, and also printed in the daily papers of Reno. Respectfully submitted,

E. E. WINFREY,
EDWIN CAINE,
ORVIS RING,
H. H. HOWE,
MISS PYNE

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

The Committee on Patriotism submitted the following.

WHEREAS, The Woman's Relief Corps have presented to us their idea of patriotic teaching as a means of instructing our youth in patriotism, serving their country, not in war and strife, but as messengers of love and good will toward mankind; that it reflects great credit upon those who have for their motto, "Fraternity, Charity, Loyalty;" therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the teachers of Nevada in State Institute assembled do most heartily approve the work done by that body in placing the American flag on the school houses and in the school rooms, and introducing the salute to the same; that we cheerfully comply with their request to continue the work by using the "Patriotic Primer" and "Declaration of Independence Chart," believing that the hope and safeguard of our Republic lies in the patriotism of our schools; that we will set apart one-half a day twice a year, if practicable more frequently, for patriotic exercises; and on the last day of school session prior to Memorial Day we will present that subject, and endeavor to have the children take part in the exercises of that day; as none can estimate the beautiful lessons of reverence for the soldier and love of country taught to the children of our land by taking active part in the observation of this most sacred day.

H. H. HOWE,
MISS SUMMERFIELD,
MISS LONG.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Institute.

Card of Thanks.

In our great grief and affliction we have many thanks to offer to the public. We thank the Sheriffs of Lander and Washoe counties for their kindness to the deceased while he was in their charge; we are thankful to the members of the Young Men's Christian Association for their services at the last sad rites; we are thankful to the ladies who contributed the beautiful flowers; and especially are we thankful to Rev. Mr. Unsworth, who officiated at the funeral, and we thank the many kind friends in Reno who sympathized with and assisted us in our hour of deepest affliction. THE VAUGHAN FAMILY.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill. writes that he had a Severe Kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called Kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began the use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure all Kidney and Liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c. for large bottle. At Hodgkinson's Drug Store.

THE DEAD GOVERNOR.

California Joins Nevada in Honoring His Memory.

The mortal remains of the late Governor Jones arrived on yesterday morning's train. Mrs. Jones and several ladies and gentlemen, friends of the deceased, came on the train. In California Governor Budd called out a regiment or two of the National Guard to escort the body to the Oakland boat, and a delegation of the Masonic Fraternity came on the train as far as Sacramento. Here Company C., N. N. G., Captain Phelps commanding, and a battalion of the University cadets, numbering 120, under command of Lieutenant Hamilton, military instructor at the University, were drawn up in line on the platform when the train arrived. There was also a large concourse of citizens at the depot, among others Justice Bonnifield of the Supreme Court, State Controller LaGrave, State Treasurer Westerfield, Attorney General Beatty, Adjutant General Galusha, Colonel E. D. Boyle of the National Guard, State Printer McCarthy and Private Secretary Hanford.

Details from the militia and cadets acted as pall-bearers and transferred the casket containing the body from the Central Pacific train to the Virginia & Truckee road. Several citizens went to Carson on the train as a token of respect for the dead.

The funeral of Governor Jones will take place to-morrow at the Capital. The Masonic Grand Lodge, a special communication of which has been called, to convene at 1 o'clock to-morrow, will conduct the funeral. The several companies of the National Guard at Virginia City and those of Reno and Carson, as well as the University cadets will act as escort. As a large number of citizens of Reno desire to attend the funeral, application was made to General Passenger Agent Bender of the V. & T. for a special train and a special rate. Mr. Bender made a special rate of two dollars for the round trip to Carson and return on Wednesday

MARION EDMUNDS, teacher.

Should Be Arranged.

It is estimated that about 175 uniformed men—Company C, N. N. G., and the Cadet Battalion of the University—will go to Carson to-morrow morning to attend the funeral of the late Governor. Arrangements should be made to take a band with the military companies, as so large a body of men would appear better and march better with music. Mr. Hoskins says he can furnish a band at a very reasonable figure if desired.

Charlie Becker and Ed. Lachman have formed a combination as agents of the Fowler bicycle. This is one of the best wheels on the market and the boys will have a fine 1896 model here during the week for a sample.

Rosenthal & Armanko have renovated and painted their store, and it is one of the neatest business houses in the town. Their stock of notions and novelties cannot be excelled outside of San Francisco.

The G. A. R. will give a delightful May Day party, which is to be made the event of the season. A May-pole dance and the drilling of several of the old boys as an awkward squad will be among the novel features introduced.

The members of I. O. O. F. in Nevada propose, as the 26th of April, the anniversary of the order in the United States, falls on Sunday this year, to celebrate the day by having the several lodges attend church in a body in their respective localities. This will be a very good way to celebrate the day.

Too Difficult For the Captain to Get the Right End of His Name.

Captain Thomas S. Smith of East One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street, who is somewhat of a philologist, had an amusing experience in trying to analyze certain Chinese characters. It appears that when Chang Lee located his laundry in Harlem, the captain was his first customer. As the acquaintance grew Chang Lee strained the red tape laundry laws and did not issue the usual ticket to the captain, but called at his apartment every Monday for his laundry and returned it on Thursday in a package marked with hieroglyphics.

"Is that my name?" asked the captain of Chang as he pointed at the Chinese characters shortly after the laundry delivery plan was inaugurated.

"Yes. He you name. See?"

The captain didn't see, but set at work to do so, and for several weeks studied the writing that Chang Lee brought to him on each returning Thursday. He searched the libraries for such Chinese literature and lexicons as they held, examined laundry tickets and read the signs in Mott street in the hope of being able to learn how Chang Lee's characters conveyed the idea of the name of Smith, but he made an utter failure. Finally he decided to appeal to Chang Lee.

"Is that my name?" he asked the laundryman on the occasion of his next visit.

"Yes."

"Can you tell me how you get Smith out of such a looking scrawl?"

"No, not Smith. He say 'Captain.' Call you captain. That your name. See?" answered the Chinaman as he pointed at the characters, with an expression that showed surprise at the captain's ignorance.—New York Herald.

Her Proof.

The late Dr. Thomson, archbishop of York, who he was bishop of Gloucester, suffered from toothache, and by medical advice resorted to narcotics to relieve the pain. One morning, after a night of great suffering, as he left the house to consult the doctor, Mrs. Thomson begged him not to allow the physician to prescribe a narcotic, as it affected his brain for several hours after taking it. On his way the bishop met the postman, who handed him a large official envelope. He opened it in the street and read his appointment to the see of York. Instead of visiting the doctor he hastened back to communicate the surprising news to his wife.

"Zoe! Zoe!" he exclaimed. "What do you think has happened? I am archbishop of York."

"There, there!" rejoined the wife. "What did I tell you? You've been taking that horrid narcotic again and are quite out of your head."

Here's Economy.

There is a man living near Maben, Miss., who prides himself on his economy. The other day, when discussing life [illegible], he remarked that he had saved several dollars in matches. "Why," he said, "when I came to Mississippi nearly 15 years ago I brought my fire with me, and I have kept the same fire ever since, never allowing it to go out, and during all this time I have never spent a cent for matches."

The Welsh Bishop.

A story used to be told that Bishop Wilberforce always crowded the seats of his first class carrying with his papers to gain him [illegible] carriage, and when asked if the seats were occupied would reply, 'Yes—occupied," adding in a low voice as the applicant went away, "but not engaged."—London Spectator.

A Napoleon Mot.

A new bon mot of Napoleon III is just reported. When Nicholas I of Russia congratulated him on coming to the throne, he addressed him as "my friend" instead of "my brother," the usual royal phrase. "This is most flattering," said the emperor. "We choose our friends. We cannot choose our relatives."

How It Happened.

"How did you"— the visitor began, when the ossified man hastened to say:

"How did I get in this condition? Certainly. A young woman gave me the marble heart when I was a young man, and it spread."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Flower Festivals, Fiestas, Rose Carnivals,

AS NOT THE LIKE, WILL BE THE DELIGHT of California for the next two or three months.

Santa Barbara Flower Festival, the fame of which is world-wide, and the glory of which, like that of Soloman, is not half told, opens April 15. Queen Flora will reign three days an arbitrary and absolute despot.

La Fiesta de Los Angeles, now fixed in the chronology of California feasts, and not less illustrious than its older prototypes, commences April 22, and the riot of fun will spread over four days.

The Carnival of Roses, to take place in San Jose, May 6th to 9th, inclusive, though a more recent candidate for favors of the fun-loving world, yet because of the limitless possibilities of the Garden City for anything that is made of roses is quite as full of promise.

A Sponge Statue.

Sponge is certainly one of the most original and unlikely materials in the world for a statue; but, for all that, one of Germany's great men is modeled in this unpromising substance.

In the Friedrichsstrasse, Berlin, is a shop which contains a statue in sponge of Mr. Withorst. He is represented life-size, seated in an armchair and holding his notes for a speech in his hand.

Every one acknowledges that the likeness is an excellent one, and the manner in which the statesman's frock coat and gold spectacles are represented is a subject for universal admiration.

The Whole World at War.

The whole world is at war—not the war of armies or fleets, but none the less war. Capital contends against labor, labor against capital; capitalist fights capitalist in trade competition; workman fights against workman in ways which have nothing to do with mere competition. There be men who deplore the facts, who denounce the existence of this warfare, as though nothing good could be said of it, and yet it is far from clear that without it the world would make any progress.—Engineer.

In Line With the Business.

"He's one of those self acting clerks," said the proprietor of the little gunshop in speaking of the young man who had quit his employ.

"How is that?" asked the patron.

"He discharges himself."—Chicago Post.

ELY'S PINEOLA BALSAM is a sure Remedy for coughs, colds, sore throat and for asthma. It soothes, quickly abates the cough, and renders expectoration easy.

Consumptives will invariably derive benefit from its use. Many who suppose their cases to be consumption are only suffering from a chronic cold or deep seated cough, often aggravated by catarrh. For catarrh use Ely's Cream Balm. Both remedies are pleasant to use. Cream Balm, 50 cts. per bottle; Pineola Balsam, 25c. Sold by Druggists. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York.
